

Text Clues

Generalizations

Colonists, in New England, often carried their guns everywhere, even to church.	Many New England colonists were protective.
	Most New England colonists were ready for war or even an attack.
	On Sunday, morning EVERYONE had to attend church.
People that missed church had severe consequences.	Most people rarely missed church to avoid being punished.
	Many people that were punished like this, felt embarrassed.
	Most New England colonists worked together to meet one another's needs.
	Many women spent their time preparing things inside.
	Most men or boys spent their day working inside the home.