

Name: _____ Number: _____ Date: _____

1st Scenario: The captain's voice startles you awake. Everyone is frantically trying to put on what appears to be a mask. Your mother's eyes look worried as she quickly helps you with your mask. Suddenly, the airplane becomes to come apart and all you can hear is screaming before you blackout. When you wake up, you see that you're in an area that appears to be an island. You, along with two other children are the only survivors. What would you need to survive? Explain your reasoning.

1)

2)

3)

4)

5)

6)

7)

2nd Scenario: Your family decided to take a trip to Alaska. As your family drives to the state, a blizzard hits the area. It has become difficult to see what's outside due to the heavy snowfall. Your parents have you asked you and your sister to be quiet. You can sense they're worried. Suddenly, the car hits a rough patch of ice and your car plunges into the lake. What would you do to survive and what would you need if you make out of the car? Explain your reasoning.

1)

2)

3)

4)

5)

6)

7)

3rd Scenario: Your family has always enjoyed living in Africa. The climate is usually warm and your house is on a huge area of land that no one usually travels on when they visit this country. It takes at least six hours to get to your house. One day, a tornado hits your home destroying everything in the process. Your father and mother are injured terribly from the accident and they're relying on you to help them survive. What would you need to survive and since Africa is very warm, what would you need to do to save your parents? Explain your reasoning.

1)

2)

3)

4)

5)

6)

7)