Where am I? Inference Worksheet

An inference is a conclusion reached on the basis of evidence and reasoning. It is an educated guess based on observation and background knowledge.

Read each scenario below and make a logical inference.

Kobe and Jonathan couldn't believe it. It was the perfect day for a short trip. As the boys eagerly jumped out of the car, they could hear teenagers shouting at each other in the water.

"Look at those waves!" Ty exclaimed.

"I know," Jonathan said. "I just wish the sand wasn't so hot!"

Brody, Braiden, and Holdyn had been waiting all summer for this day. For weeks they had planned what they would do, what T-shirts they would wear to represent their team, and which player they hoped would autograph their souvenir. As they entered the stadium, they had to walk up quite a few steps to reach their seats. They arrived just in time to hear the ump say, "Play ball!"

Sahshan and Melissa had been planning this event for months. Before the big day, Sahshan called Melissa to double check on some last minute things they'd probably need.

"Hey, Melissa!" Sahshan began. "Did you get the candles, the paper plates, and the ice cream?"

"Yup," Melissa replied.

"Oh, good! I'll make sure to pick up the cake and the balloons!"
