

End Punctuation 2

This activity gives you practice using correct end punctuation. (Check pages 479 and 480 in Write Source if you need help with this activity.)

Examples

He wears a cape and a big S.

Who is he?

He's Superman!

Directions

Put the correct end punctuation in the sentences below, and capitalize the first letter of each sentence. The first sentence has been done for you.

- 1 ~~T~~he first superhero, Superman, came on the scene in the
- 2 1930s. he was created by a writer and an artist, and their cartoon
- 3 Superman was no average Joe how fast was Superman he was
- 4 faster than a speeding bullet he could also bend steel with his bare
- 5 hands he had these special abilities because he came from a planet
- 6 called Krypton of course, he always used his powers to fight evil
- 7 Superman was in comic books and newspapers and on radio
- 8 and TV when World War II started, Superman's creators had to
- 9 decide if he would join the army well, he tried to join the army
- 10 but failed his eye exam how did he do that with his X-ray vision
- 11 he read an eye chart in the next room, instead of reading his own

The Next Step Write a story describing a problem Superman faces. Use the three kinds of end punctuation in your story.